

NACS Promoter Agreement

In consideration of North American Cycle Sport (NACS) sanctioning the Event, and in consideration of Promoter sanctioning the Event with NACS, the Promoter and NACS hereby agree to the following definitions and contractual terms:

Definitions:

- Event: NACS-sanctioned competitive or non-competitive cycling activity
- Promoter: Event owners and organizers, race directors and promoters

Contractual Terms:

1. NACS agrees to provide insurance pursuant to the insurance policies shown on the NACS site.
2. Promoter agrees to have all Event participants sign the NACS Waiver and Release of Liability and to retain the original signed waivers for at least seven (7) years in case of litigation.
3. NACS agrees to work with Promoter to staff competitive Events with qualified cycling officials, and Promoter agrees to pay the officials pursuant to the fee schedule posted online at www.NACS.bike.
4. Promoter agrees to comply with UCI regulations for the cycling portions of all competitive Events sanctioned by NACS and shall consult with the assigned chief official for determining any exceptions to those regulations.
5. Promoter agrees that s/he has the primary responsibility for the safety of riders, volunteers, and other participants in the Event.
6. Promoter agrees to provide to NACS all results for the Event promptly following the conclusion of the Event in electronic format in a spreadsheet for posting online on the NACS website under the Event name.
7. Promoter agrees to provide to NACS an accurate count of Event participants, and all contact information for all Event participants, via the NACS Post-Event Report forms, within five (5) business days after the event.
8. Promoter agrees to complete an Incident Report for all incidents which occur during the Event and provide a copy thereof to NACS with the NACS Post-Event Report.
9. Promoter agrees to promptly, within five (5) business days, remit all funds due to NACS as delineated in the NACS Post-Event Report form.
10. Promoter agrees to allow NACS access to all contact information for all Event participants which are collected in any online registration service or database.
11. NACS agrees to protect the privacy of all Event participants and their contact information as obtained from Promoter or Promoter's online registration service and shall only use such information for cycling-related purposes. This contact information shall be considered and protected as confidential information.
